

George W. Weaver has been the Husband of Jody since December 19, 1986, and is the Father of Shawn (born 79), Melissa (born 81), Tony (born 88), Hope (born 07), and Luke (born 08). He is the grandfather of McKenzie, Bella, Payton, Arianna, Emma, Michaela, and great grandfather of Beaux.

George Weaver believes he had a calling to serve in the Royal Ranger Ministry. George is currently the Royal Rangers Assistant Coordinator for the Gulf Region which includes five Districts which are Arkansas, Mississippi, Tennessee, Louisiana, and Southern Missouri, and is the Outpost Coordinator of Outpost 68 at First Assembly of God North Little Rock Arkansas. He became involved in the Royal Ranger ministry in 1989 in Wichita Kansas. When he moved to Camp Springs Maryland in 1995, he continued to help with the Royal Rangers. After moving to North Little Rock Arkansas in 1998 he finished the Leadership Training Course in 1999. George completed the National Training Camp (NTC) in 2002. He became a member of Frontiersman Camping Fellowship in 2002. George was also the Central Area Commander of Section 15. He completed the Advanced National Training Camp (ANTC) and became certified as an instructor in 2003. He then completed the Ranger Kids Training Camp and the National Training Trails in 2004. George graduated from the National Academy in 2007 and became an Instructor Trainer in 2008. He earned his Buckskin level in Frontiersman Camping fellowship in 2008. He completed the Winter National Training Camp in 2010. He has served on staff at NTC, ANTC, National Canoe Expedition, and National Ranger Ministry Camp, World Class Outpost, and Instructor Training Academy's. He became a nationally certified Instructor Trainer in 2011. In 2013 he graduated from the Advanced Academy and has since served on staff at National Academy and Advanced Academy's as a National /Advanced Academy Instructor several times. In 2018 George earned the Wilderness level in Frontiersman Camping Fellowship. He served several years as the Camp Commander for the Adventure Training Camp. He has served many times as the Camp commander of the Action Canoe Expeditions. He has served as the Academy Director for the Ouachita Mountain Ranger Academy. He served as the Arkansas Royal Rangers Deputy District Training coordinator from 2005 to 2011. He also served as the Royal Ranger Arkansas District Training Coordinator from 2011 - 2017. George became the Arkansas Royal Rangers District Director in 2018 and the Gulf Region Royal Rangers Training coordinator that same year, serving in these roles until 2022 and in 2023 he became the Royal Rangers Gulf Region Assistant Coordinator. George is faithful to his church. He has helped with Junior Bible Quiz, as a Church Usher, Facilitator of communion after church service and as one of the lead security members for his church. He also served in numerous roles for his church during special events and activities such as Coordinator of Parking and providing transportation to and from for volunteers and attendees, as well as security.